

Merlin and The Ring of Enchantment.

The Chalice Well

The Chalice Well is an ancient Holy Well, situated at the foot of Glastonbury Tor.

The living waters flow ceaselessly, linked through Time to the Grail Mysteries.

The healing waters will bathe and soothe your spirit, immersing your Self in the sacred feminine, preparing you for your journey into the World of Merlin.

The Workshop

The days will be relaxed, magical and creative.

You will stir the waters of remembrance and enjoy the spontaneous play of colour and symbol.

You will create a necklace (a talisman) , receive a sacred word and colour a ring of enchantment which will be filled with your own special symbols.

You will need no art experience to participate, simply play and let the Magic open your heart.

Dates	Sat. Oct.23 rd and Sun.Oct.24 th 2010
Time	10.am –5pm.
Venue	The Meeting Room , Chalice Well, Glastonbury.
Cost	£90 for the two days, this includes tea, coffee, juice and a delicious home made soup with fresh bread for lunch on both days.

Accommodation is not provided but there are many Bed and Breakfast facilities in Glastonbury. Please telephone Sheila for a full list.

To reserve a place please contact Sheila.

01373 824971

07791564884

sheila@womensmagic.co.uk

Directions

The chalice well is situated at the foot of Glastonbury Tor, on the main road (A361), toward Shepton Mallet. Parking is available at the nearby Rural Life Museum in Bere lane.

For a detailed route map please use the post code BA6 8DD.
The Meeting Room is within The Chalice Well complex.

Testimonial

"I feel truly welcomed by Merlin whose divine soul unites with mine and in to the heart of Avalon, as an ancient lineage awakens in my blood as I remember again.

Excalibur flames through my heart, cleansing and clearing old doctrine and transmuting into pools of infinite knowledge, wisdom and magic.

I am as grounded as can be in my bones, but how my spirit soars to such heights.

I am a warrior of light, truth honour and love, ever courageous and true to my personal missions and destiny, but connected to Merlin.

I feel renewed and deeply healed, all the old and outworn has been washed away."

Roxanne.